

The background of the advertisement features a black backdrop. In the top left corner, there is a cannabis plant with green and purple leaves. In the bottom right corner, there is a leafy green plant with prominent red veins. The central focus is a series of six white, rectangular LED light bars hanging diagonally from the top. Each bar is suspended by a thin wire and has a small, grey rectangular component attached to its side. The bars are arranged in a staggered, overlapping fashion, creating a sense of depth.
